

The Divine Trio

Returning to God's Original Design for Knowing, Living, and Building Lives of Excellence

What if the life you've been praying for is built on three things you've never fully understood?

Many believers know about knowledge, understanding, and wisdom. We quote them, pray for them, and admire them in Scripture. Yet few of us have stopped to ask what they really are, how they differ, or why God used all three to create the world.

In The Divine Trio, Mamah Oluchukwu invites you on a deeply reflective and Christ-centred journey through three of Scripture's foundational gifts: knowledge, understanding, and wisdom. Through rich biblical teaching, relatable stories, practical illustrations, and heartfelt reflections, she shows how God uses these three gifts to transform not only the way we think, but also the way we live, love, lead, and ultimately become more like Christ.

This is not merely a study of biblical concepts.

It is an invitation to become the kind of person whose life reflects the wisdom, beauty, and excellence of God.

Inside this book, you will discover:

Why biblical knowledge begins with intimacy, not information.

How understanding enables you to see what others miss.

Why wisdom is the practical skill of living God's way.

How the Divine Trio shapes every decision, relationship, business, ministry, and calling.

Why excellence is not perfection, but the visible expression of God's character in a transformed life.

Whether you are leading a business, raising a family, serving in ministry, building a career, or simply longing to know God more deeply, this book offers a biblical framework for living with clarity, conviction, and purpose.

Because transformed people build transformed lives.

And transformed lives change the world.

If your desire is not merely to know about God, but to know Him more deeply and reflect Him more faithfully, then this book is for you.
